EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

Today's Focus: Alive in Christ

Just as the Easter season celebrates Christ arisen, our own lives must be celebrations in which the life of Christ arises from our daily living.

FIRST READING: Acts 10.34a, 37-43 We ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead.

Throughout the Acts of the Apostles, speeches serve two functions. First, they are used to inform the narrative audience about the good news of Jesus Christ. Second, they remind the reader of the content of the faith. In today's reading, Peter begins his speech by recounting the story of Jesus' public life and assures Cornelius's household that Peter and the apostles are witnesses of all that Jesus said and did, and that Peter had been commissioned by Jesus to preach to the people. Luke's audience recognizes in this encounter that the proclamation of the gospel to a Gentile fulfills the prophecy of Simeon that Jesus will be "a light for revelation to the Gentiles" (Luke 2:32).

SECOND READING: Colossians 3.1-4 Seek the things that are above, where Christ is.

The alternate choices for the second reading share the same theme: being a member of the body of Christ makes all things new. In Colossians, we are reminded that our focus should be on the things of heaven, since our life is now in Christ and Christ is seated at God's right hand. In First Corinthians, we are to be fresh dough without old yeast. The imagery of old yeast draws on the Jewish preparation for Passover, when all leaven is removed from the home. As Paul explains, Christ is the Passover who was sacrificed and we are to respond with the bread of sincerity and truth.

GOSPEL: John 20.1-18++

According to the Scripture: Jesus must rise from the dead.

Though all four of our Gospels acknowledged that Mary discovered the empty tomb, Cephas (Peter) is the one credited with seeing the risen Jesus first (1 Corinthians 15:5). Today's Gospel highlights the important roles of both parties. Mary visits the tomb of Jesus, but we are not told why, for Jesus was anointed before his burial (John 19:40). When she discovers the empty tomb, she runs to Simon Peter and the beloved disciple. The men hasten to the tomb and verify what Mary has told them. In Greco-Roman law, two male witnesses were needed to corroborate a fact. Nonetheless, the evangelist does then narrate the encounter between the Risen Jesus and Mary (John 20:11-18).

REFLECTIONS:

- Name the ways that you deepen your relationship with the Risen Christ.
- Give some examples of how people see Jesus in each day.

CWL Rosary Q Intention for the month

Let us ask Our Blessed Mother for good weather, so our farmers will harvest abundantly for our food. AMEN
